

Edvard Munch – Drawing with Feelings - Art

Year 3/4

Key Vocabulary

Expressionism - a style of painting, music, or drama in which the artist or writer seeks to express the inner world of emotion rather than external reality.

Emotion: a strong feeling deriving from one's circumstances, mood, or relationships with others.

Analyse: examine (something) methodically and in detail, typically in order to explain and interpret it.

Munch's Art Style:

Munch's art style focuses on painting to evoke emotions and feelings, which is known as "expressionism".

Other expressionists include: Kadinsky, Van Gogh and Monet.

Assessment:

- To learn about the 'great artist' Edvard Munch.
- To analyse and respond to 'The Scream'.
- To understand art in response to feelings and emotions.
- To improve their technique of working with pastels.
- To create a piece of art based on 'The Scream'.

All about Munch:

Edvard Munch was born in 1863 in Oslo, Norway.

Munch's mother died when he was very young, followed by his sister. His older sister was very poorly with mental health problem.

This led to Munch having his own problems with mental health, but inspired some of his paintings. Such as 'The Sick Child'

Munch's art work often depicted his own feelings.

